MARKET DID NOT ADVANCE

Continuation of Realizing Movement of Yesterday Causes Sharp Declines

Active Bidding for Southern Pacific and Pacific Mutt Sends Them Up -Bonds Were Dull.

New York, Oct. 25,-The realizing movement which developed in yester day's closing hours was still in evidence this morning, causing sharp declines in some stocks. Northern Pacific was quoted simultaneously at 57% down to 57% on the sale of 3,000 shares, compared with 57% last night. The bull party bid up Brooklyn Transit 1% on a rumor of Metropolitan control and lifted Southern Pacific nearly a point. The opening as a consequence was very irregular.

The general market did not advance appreciably notwithstanding the buoyancy of Brooklyn Transit and Metropolitan Street railway. These stocks improved 2% and 2% respectively. Active bidding for Southern Pacific and Pacific Mail raised them 11/1011/4. At grade under heavy realizing in the tractions, Sugar, Tobacco and some of

LONDON WOOL AUCTION.

London, Oct. 24.-There was a good tttendance at today's session of the wool auction sales, Business was brisk and prices firm. The number of Pales offered was 12,548, half of which were crossbreds and were well comwool was in active demand. No sales will be held on October 27th, owing to the home-coming of the City Imperial volunteer corps from South Africa. The present sale is scheduled to close on November 3rd.

REVIEW OF WOOD MARKET. Boston, Oct. 24.-The American Wool and Cotton Reporter will say tomorrow: Trade in wool has continued to improve, and the business done is of a more satisfactory character. That is to say, holders of wool do not find a necessary to offer so many special in-ducements to intending purchasers. It have a caster for them to get asking prices han it was a month ago. The sales of the week aggregate over 3,000,000 counds, and this total would have been considerably increased if holders had a county all offers made to consented to accept all offers made beconsumers. The trade feels that the downward tendency has been arrested and that a basis has been established on which a good business can be done when the demand shall increase. The market is, in fact, firmer.

London sales continue along on the pasts of opening prices, except for in-ferior merinos, which are weaker, but ittle is being offered suitable for Amer-ca, and the purchases for the latter therefore, have thus far been of moderate amount. Orders for wool sent from this side at prices currently quoted at the opening have, in several instances, failed to secure wool.

"In the West the situation is as firm as ever, and holders are determined not to part with their wool until after election."

The sales of the week in Boston amounted to 2,899,000 pounds domestic and 195,000 pounds foreign, making a total of 3,094,000 pounds against a total of 3, 314,300 pounds for the previous week and a total of 10,701,200 pounds for the corresponding week last year. sales since January 1st amounted to 107,595,800 pounds, against 249,045,300 pounds for the corresponding time last

KING MENELIK'S CAPITAL.

Menelik and his empire are often on men's lips, but how many people we meet would care to say offhand what is the name of his capital? Magdala we 11 o'clock the market was on the down | know, and Adua we know, because of recent wars, but Addis Ababa enjoys the blessing of having no history. Some say the words mean "the new white rose," others translate it, "the new flower," but I prefer the former title. It is a unique capital in that it arose almost in a single night, and is destin to disappear as speedily. The fact that Abyssinians are utterly reckless the manner of forestry, and whenev oon use up all the fuel available for

Menelik's former capital, Entotto, two or three hours' climb from the New White Rose, was abandoned not long ago for that very reason, and nothing now remains there save two churches and a few brown ruins of the palace; ruins not a generation old,—how strange that sounds! Already the New White Rose must bring her fuel from a greater listance at a greater expense, and th king of kings is looking out for another capital. Of course, the chief interest of Menelik's capital is Menelik himself, and was fortunate in securing an audience of forty minutes the day before he was to start upon a royal progress through the kingdom of Shoa.

His palace is like a straggling village and I had to ride through courtyard after courtyard of mud huts before I reached the square which contains his banqueting hall, court of justice, and hall of audience.

On the forefront of the court of jus-tice is a large clock, which never goesa fitting symbol of Abyssinian admin-istration. The banqueting ball is used on the occasion of great festivals to en-tertain some 6,000 braves at a time, with huge joints of raw meat. All squat upon the ground and cut off portions close to their noses with their long urved swords. Menelik, says Herbert Vivian in the November Pearson's, is very much as pictures and books have led you to exect-a stout, amiable man, with a very lack face, and short stubby beard. He quite hald, so he wears a cloth tight is quite bald, so he wears a total tight y tied round his head and over that a hig felt wideawake. His clothes are of silk, loose striped garments for the most part, and his feet are clad in unaced tennis shoes. In his left ear is turgulose stud, the badge of an ele-phant killer, and on his left hand is a gold ring with a diamond set gipsy fashion. Only royalty may wear gold
